FIRST CONDITIONAL

HOW TO FORM

If + Present Simple, + will/ won't/ modal imperative/ be able to

If we leave now, we'll catch the bus
If don't leave now, we won't catch it

If + Present Continuous, + will/ won't/ modal imperative/ be able to

If you are waiting for me, you'll miss the train
If you're paying a bill, make sure you have enough money

If + Present Perfect, + will/ won't/ modal Imperative/ be able to

If you have finished a test, you are able to pass an exam

HOW TO USE

1) to talk about possible future actions

If it doesn't rain, we'll have a picnic.

2) when we offer or suggest something

If you need a ticket, I can buy you one.

3) to talk about warning or threats

If you go there alone, you can hurt yourself.

4) in some if-clauses if is followed by will meaning "insist on", "politeness"

If you will wear it, you'll get cold.
If you will wait, I'll find someone to help you.